

Long Hill Estate Authority
Schedule B: Rental Information and Regulations

The Wadsworth Mansion ("the Mansion") may be rented for social events, meetings, and cultural activities. All mansion rentals with ticketed admission must be contracted by a non-profit organization recognized by the Department of Revenue Services. Other uses of the property shall be approved by the Long Hill Estate Authority ("the Authority").

1. Responsibilities

The individual signing the Facility Use Agreement assumes all responsibility for the rental and will be noted as "Customer" in this text. All payments, correspondence, Insurance Certificate/Application, and communications, among other things, regarding the use of the Mansion will be made through this individual.

2. Periods of Rental

Unless otherwise indicated in the Facility Use Agreement the rental time is for a period of nine (9) continuous hours, as directed on the Events Detail Form. When Customers plan their weddings, they must apportion no less than three hours for the caterer to set up. Customers must also apportion no less than a full hour for vendors to break down at the conclusion of an event. Curfew Friday and Saturday is 12:00am. Curfew Sunday through Thursday is 11:00pm midnight. The Customer may set his or her use hours within the house guidelines.

Rental hours begin at the time the Mansion is opened for any reason: including, but not limited to: deliveries, vendors, and other activities and does not conclude until the Customer, guests, vendors, and the Event Supervisor have left the Estate (for the purposes of this Schedule B, the term Estate shall include, without limitation, all parts of the Mansion, the grounds, and the Parklands).

Exceeding contracted use of the Mansion will result in additional charges as set forth in the Facility Use Agreement. Additional rental hours must be pre-paid.

The Mansion will not be opened to guests until 30 minutes prior to the ceremony or reception.

3. Mansion Usage

Areas offered for rental include the first floor of the Mansion, excluding the office and Museum Room. As the Second Floor of the Mansion is rented to a tenant, this area is not available. The balcony and the bride's room on the second floor are available on weekends and after 3:00pm on weekdays. Also offered are selected areas of the grounds including the Exedra, the Tennis Pavilion, and Vista.

As the Mansion is part of a municipal park of the City of Middletown, the gardens, grounds, and Parklands are open to the public.

5. Resident Nonresident/Taxpayer Discount

In order to qualify for the resident discount rate, the bride, the groom, or their parent(s) is/are required to present a valid driver's license with a Middletown address or a receipted tax bill when signing the Facility Use Agreement. If the Customer misrepresents their resident/taxpayer status, the Authority reserves the right to terminate the Facility Use Agreement and/or take action as it may deem appropriate.

6. Additional Security

Based upon the number of attendees, the type of event being held, or special circumstances which could jeopardize the safety or enjoyment of the guests or result in damage to the building, police presence may be required. The Customer shall be responsible for payment to the City of Middletown Police Department. Sufficient chaperones are required for events hosted for minors, including door security and guest list check in. A wristband may be required to indicate that a person is an invited guest or eligible to drink alcohol.

7. Mansion Equipment and Furnishings

The Authority provides tables, chairs, and a dance floor for indoor use. There is a commercial kitchen available to caterers, however the Customer/Caterer is responsible for supplying china, glassware, flatware, linens and other accessories necessary for food service.

The LHEA will set up the Mansion according to the floor plan submitted by the bride or the caterer, however the caterer is responsible for setting up all tables and chairs on the terrace, including the ceremony chairs on the lawns.

8. Event Supervisor

The Long Hill Estate Authority will assign an Event Supervisor to open and close the Mansion at every event. He/she will be present the entire time the Mansion is open. The Event Supervisor's responsibility is to supervise the use of the facilities, to make certain these Rules and Regulations are understood and enforced.

At the conclusion of the event, the Customer or caterer will sign the inventory and cleaning checklist. The Customer is responsible for leaving the Mansion, including the kitchen, furniture, tables/chairs, and lawn, in the same condition in which they were found. Following the Customer's rental, the Event Supervisor will perform a general review of the cleanup, checking for any damage to the Mansion, its equipment and/or furnishings. The Authority reserves the right to re-inspect the Mansion after the Customer's event and to point out any discrepancies/failure to comply with these Rules and Regulations concerning the care and clean up of the Mansion.

9. Caterer

The Long Hill Estate Authority does not provide catering services. The Customer is responsible for contracting with one of the Approved Caterers at the end of Schedule B.

There are circumstances where the LHEA will allow an outside caterer to work at the Mansion. Should a customer wish to use a caterer/bartender who is not on the approved list they must make a written request naming the caterer/bartender and supply all required licenses and insurance certificates for approval by the Long Hill Estate Authority. The fee for use of a caterer that requires pre-approval by the LHEA is $1,000.00 and must accompany the written request. Permission will not be granted until all documents are received and approved. The caterer is responsible for contacting the Mansion to arrange a site visit as part of the approval process. It is our recommendation that the outside caterer be approved prior to booking the Mansion as deposits/payments will not be refunded if the Caterer is not approved, nor will a caterer be allowed in the building that is not approved. Only full service caterers with prior wedding experience will be considered for approval.

The Customer and the caterer are required to conform to the Rules and Regulations regarding custodial services, cleaning responsibilities, recycling procedures, event supervision, and inventory. .

With the exception of wedding cakes, all food must be prepared and delivered by the approved caterer, and under no circumstances may the customer bring in food prepared by anyone other than the approved caterer. LHEA reserves the right to deny facility access to a non-approved caterer and/or to any other person attempting to enter the facility with food on event day if this provision is violated.

The Customer, by assuming this responsibility, agrees to indemnify, if necessary, and hold the Authority and the City of Middletown harmless from any cause of action on any claims made as a result of any failure to maintain reasonable sanitary standards.

10. Alcoholic Beverages

The sale and/or serving of alcoholic beverages must conform, without exception, to all State of Connecticut Statutes and Regulations and/or City of Middletown Ordinances and Regulations. Consumption of such beverages in cars, driveways, parking lots, and other areas of the Parklands is a violation of the City of Middletown Ordinances and is prohibited.

It is the customer's responsibility to give the Mansion timely notice of any planned fireworks display. No aerial shells shall be larger than three inches. All firework displays will be not last more than 10 minutes in duration and will be completed by 10:00 p.m.
Should any guest ignite any pyrotechnic device the event will be terminated.
- Throwing of rice, confetti, glitter, or birdseed is not permitted inside or outside of the Wadsworth Mansion. Bubble blowing is not permitted in the building.
- Compliance with Fire Code Regulations requires that any event be concluded in the event of a power failure. Should an event be terminated due to power failure, the Long Hill Estate Authority will be held harmless for any damages.

15. Compliance with Long Hill Estate, City, State and Federal Laws and Regulations

The Customer must comply with all statutes, ordinances, and regulations of the Long Hill Estate Authority, the City of Middletown, the State Of Connecticut, and the United States. The Event Supervisor will notify the police if any laws are violated. Failure to comply with laws will result in the termination of the event. The Event Supervisor has the right to remove any individual who in his/her opinion is in violation of this Schedule B, and/or to terminate any use or activity, in whole or in part, which is not in compliance. If the event is totally terminated, the Mansion must be vacated and full compensation for damages will be required from the Customer. No refund of rental fee will be made if such discontinuance is ordered.

Schedule C: Planning Guidelines

This section was created to assist our customers with planning events. While some of this information is redundant to Schedule B, it may be helpful to see the information in the context of planning an event. These planning guidelines must be shared with all vendors.

Rental Period

The standard rental of the Mansion for a wedding is nine (9) hours. The rental time of the Mansion commences when the building is opened for the customer or any vendor and terminates when the client, guests and vendors have departed the property. Set up and breakdown are included in the 9 hour period. Additional time may be purchased at the rate of $750 per hour.

Any wedding items and decor may be delivered for storage during the week of the wedding at a final drop off time scheduled with the event supervisor. No food will be accepted for storage at the Mansion prior to your event.

Caterers need three hours to set up for an event. If you are having a ceremony here the caterer will want to have the Mansion set up before your guests enter the building. If guests arrive 15 minutes before a ceremony and ceremonies last 30 minutes this means that the Mansion needs to be ready 45 minutes before the reception officially begins. The Mansion will not be opened to guests until 30 minutes prior to the ceremony or reception.

Vendors will need a full hour to break down at the conclusion of an event. Vendors providing lighting may require more time to break down. Caterers are required to bring all outdoor furniture inside and it must be appropriately stored at the direction of the Event Supervisor.

Rentals and Deliveries

All Rentals and Deliveries must be scheduled with the event supervisor, as well as pick up times. Unless other arrangements are made, any and all rental items and/or items belonging to the Customer/Vendors must be removed from the premises on the day of the event. The Long Hill Estate Authority will not assume responsibility for any property left behind, including property left in the basement storage cages.

Event Planning

The dance floor is normally positioned in the loggia. For an additional fee the dance floor may be removed or situated in one of the ballrooms. When submitting the floor plan, please designate where the dance floor should be set as it cannot be repositioned on the day of the event. The dance floor shall not be placed outside the Mansion. The Floor Plan must be submitted at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the event.
